Revolution? War? Inalienable Rights? Space travel and air pollution -- Starvation and Women's Liberation? Do you remember all of these? How about earthquakes or the Suez Canal, or a poor Black or Puerto Rican or American Indian child staring out of a glossy photograph with eyes as big as pancakes and a belly as big as a clothes basket? Or apathy on campus? Or an eleven year old boy dying from an overdose of heroin?

Sometimes we allow ourselves to let these things slip into the oblivion of disconcern. Sometimes we become so involved in one that the others slip away to the same unfertile pasture. Some people might say this is only human, but it naturally follows that we have to overcome this humaness for the benefit of humanity.

As students, but more important, as people, we are standing in the middle of all the world's frailties and shortcomings, and have ahead of us the task of redeeming ourselves for the sake of brotherhood and peace.

Read these next few pages and think of you, of me, of our friends, and of all those we don't know, and ponder what solutions are available and what we can do together for the good of all.

The LATEST IN DEFENDANTS' ATTIRE -- Mocking the judge, Abbie Hoffman, left, and Jerry Rubin wear judicial-type robes at press conference in federal building, Chicago, today. They are among Chicago 7 on trial on charges of conspiracy to cause riots. During five months of trial they've shouted at Judge Julius Hoffman in open court, now resort to this humorous getup.

SIGNS OF THE TIMES

Signs appear over the heads of crowd of about 1,500 persons -- about half male -- who assembled at New York's City Hall Park August 26 for a lunch hour rally in support of the Woman's Liberation Movement. The rally was one of many across the nation sponsored by the National Women's Strike Coalition, timed to coincide with the 50th Anniversary of the adoption of the 19th Amendment, giving women the right to vote. 8/26/70

We have gone through all of this together, and there is much ahead that we will have to suffer apart. Right now some of us think peace is tantamount to survival, some think population control and help for the poor, still others think revival of and care for mother earth will save man. Whatever our individual opinions, we can't allow ourselves to become so concerned with our own individuality of person and mind that we miss the importance of the other man's thoughts. Work together and maybe someday our worries about future generations will be something of which we can think with fond memories.

Now it is time to review ourselves, our friends, our antics and the people that make Mount Wachusett tick.

Mrs. Mickey Bent

Outstanding Teacher, 1970-71

As a compliment to many and varied outside interests, Mrs. Bent, aided in writing by the wit and literary talent of Dave Chambers, has written, produced, and directed the two-act musical, ALLACAZZAN. The play received great acclaim for its three-day showing here, and is listed for the month of June at the Wallace Civic Center in Fitchburg. Also as a result of her great knowledge of notes and bars, Mrs. Bent teaches Music Theory and Music Literature at the Mount.

From those of us that are leaving and those returning, Mickey, congratulations and the very best of wishes.
